The restated certificate must be signed by all general partners.

A certificate of limited partnership shall be amended by filing a certificate of amendment with the secretary of state. The certificate of amendment shall be on a form prescribed by the secretary of state and shall state all of the following:

The name of the limited partnership and the file number assigned to it by the secretary of state;

The date of the first filing of the certificate of limited partnership, and if different, the date of the first filing by the partnership with the secretary of state pursuant to section 1782.63 of the ORC;

The amendment to the certificate of limited partnership.

A certificate of limited partnership may be amended at any time for any other proper purpose the general partners determine.

A certificate of limited partnership may be restated at any time by filing a restatement of the certificate of limited partnership with the secretary of state.

Follow these instructions in this section if an item in box (2) is checked.

If any statement in the application for registration of a foreign limited partnership was materially false when made or if any arrangements or other facts described have changed, thereby making the application inaccurate in any material respect, the foreign limited partnership shall file promptly with the secretary of state a certificate correcting the application on a form prescribed by the secretary of state and shall be signed by a general partner.

If the designated agent changes the agent's address from that appearing in the registration application or any subsequent correction of the registration application, the foreign limited partnership, or the designated agent on its behalf, shall file promptly with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a statement of correction setting forth the new address.
