FAMILY

[This section varies depending on your marital and parental status.]

At the time of executing this Will, I am married to Jane Doe. The names of my children are listed below. Unless otherwise specifically indicated in this Will, any provision for my children includes the below-named children, as well as any child of mine hereafter born or adopted.

Ann Doe
Charles Doe
Henry Doe

I specifically, intentionally and with full knowledge fail to provide for Henry Doe in this Will.

DEBT

I direct that as soon as is practical after my death, the executor named pursuant to this Will review all of my just debts and obligations, including last illness and funeral expenses, except for those secured long-term debts that may be assumed by the beneficiary of such property, unless such assumption is prohibited by law or on agreement by the beneficiary. The executor is further directed to pay any attorneys' fees and any other estate administration expenses. The executor shall pay these just debts only after a creditor provides timely and sufficient evidence to support its claim and in accordance with applicable state law.

I direct that any estate, inheritance, and succession taxes, including any interest and penalties thereon, imposed by the federal government or any state, district, or territory, attributable to assets includible in my estate, passing either under or outside of this Will, be apportioned among the persons interested in my estate in accordance with applicable state and federal law. My executor is authorized and directed to seek reimbursement from the beneficiaries of my estate of any taxes paid by my executor to the extent allowed by law.

If my executor cannot collect from any person interested in the estate the amount of tax apportioned to that person, the amount not recoverable will be equitably apportioned among the other persons interested in the estate who are subject to apportionment.

If a person is charged with or required to pay tax in an amount greater than his or her prorated amount because another person does not pay his or her prorated amount, the person charged with or required to pay the greater amount has a right of reimbursement against the second person.

I further direct that if any beneficiary named in this Will is indebted to me at the time of my death, and evidence of such indebtedness is provided or made available to my executor, that share of my estate that I give to any and each such beneficiary be reduced in value by an amount equal to the proven indebtedness of such beneficiary unless: (i) I have specifically provided in this Will for the forbearance of such debt, or (ii) such beneficiary is the sole principal beneficiary.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Will to the contrary, I direct that the share(s) of my estate allocated to the beneficiary(ies) designated below be held in trust and administered and distributed in accordance with the terms of this "Testamentary Trust" clause as set forth below.

1. The share of my estate given to Ann Doe will remain in trust until Ann Doe reaches 25 years old.

2. One half of the share of my estate given to Charles Doe will be distributed outright and free of trust when Charles Doe reaches 18 years old. The remainder of the share will be distributed outright and free of trust when Charles Doe reaches 30 years old.

Distribution Provisions

The trustee shall distribute, in convenient installments to or for the benefit of a trust beneficiary, so much of the net income and principal of the beneficiary's trust share as the trustee deems necessary, in the trustee's discretion, for the health, education, maintenance, and support of said trust beneficiary. Education includes, but is not limited to, college, graduate school, vocational studies, and reasonably related living and travel expenses.

In exercising any power concerning discretionary payments of income or principal to or for the benefit of the beneficiary of any trust under this Will, the trustee shall consider other income or resources of the beneficiary known to the trustee and the trustee may rely on the written statement of the beneficiary about such other income or resources.

Any net income not distributed to the trust beneficiaries will be added to the principal of the applicable trust share and reinvested for future distribution.

When a trust beneficiary is entitled to distribution of the balance of the beneficiary's trust share in accordance with the trust provisions set forth above, the trustee shall distribute to such trust beneficiary the remaining principal and accumulated net income of his trust share, less the beneficiary's pro rata share of unpaid trust administration expenses.

If a trust beneficiary survives me but predeceases the complete distribution of his or her trust, such trust will be terminated forthwith and the remaining principal balance and any accumulated but undistributed net income will be distributed to the deceased beneficiary's surviving heirs at law.

If a trustee determines, in the trustee's discretion, that the corpus of a trust share is of insufficient value to economically administer, the trustee may terminate the trust in accordance with applicable state law and distribute the accrued and undistributed net income and remaining principal balance of the trust share to the trust beneficiary, outright and free of trust.

During my spouse's lifetime, the trustee shall distribute net income and principal of the Credit Shelter Trust in accordance with the following provisions:

a. The trustee shall pay to my spouse or apply for his or her benefit all of the net income of the trust, with such payments to be made at regular intervals as determined in the trustee's sole discretion, except that the trustee shall make payments at least annually.

c. In making any such discretionary distributions, the trustee may take into consideration all relevant circumstances, including but not limited to my spouse's accustomed standard of living and other assets and sources of income or support available to my spouse and known to the trustee.

On the death of my spouse, the remaining Credit Shelter Trust assets will be distributed in accordance with the provisions of this Will, as if I had died on the date of my spouse's death and my spouse had not survived me.
